A German printer boy, who has been a year getting from New Orleans, by way of Richmond, to his friends in the loyal States, arrived here to-day. He worked several months at printing in Richmond, and being suspected was thrown into jail, but was finally released. He says the Germans of the South are to a man for the Union. He estimates the number of fighting men at Richmond at 70,000 at the outside 2d. It being of paramount importance to fill up the old regiments speedily, a fee to recruits to the old regiments double that for the new regiments, will be paid, to wit, men at Bichmond at 70,000 at the outside, and confirms the report derived from other sources, that four divisions, Longstreet's Ewell's, Hills ami Jackson's are stationed four dollars for each recruit.
